

The Friends of the Willis Museum

The Basingstoke Borough Police 1836-1889

A talk by Malcolm Bob Clarke at the Willis Museum
20th January 2022 at 7.30pm sharp

Bob Clarke will tell the history of the Basingstoke Borough Police 1836-1889. Drawing on newspaper reports and original documents including the fascinating diary kept by Superintendent Franklin covering the years 1853-57, a rich picture will be painted of criminal events in Basingstoke.

Doors open 7.10pm

For this meeting at the Museum, it is a Members only meeting - sorry no guests allowed in this instance